Bobolinks

The Bobolinks is a co-ed a cappella group with a repertoire is as diverse as a typical college student's music library--from rock to hip-hop to bizarre British neo-pop and everything in between. We even sing a Cyndi Lauper medley. The group performs frequently on campus and at schools and venues in the greater New England area.

Above: The Bobolinks bid farewell to two super-seniors at their J-term concert 2010, dressed as toys and fads from the 90s.

The Solar Decathlon

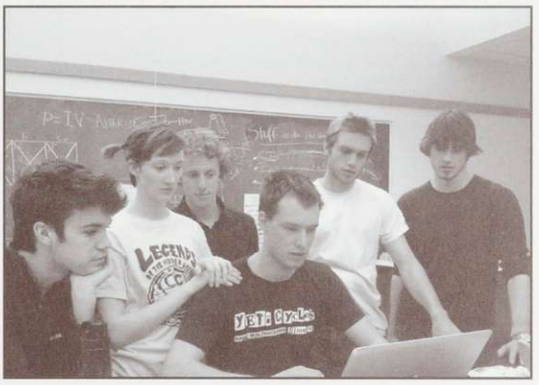
The Solar Decathlon team set out to design, build and operate an affordable and energy-efficient solar-powered house. What started as a small group at the Activities Fair (left) quickly became a large-scale collaboration between many students, professors and local architects and engineers. Below, two members of the team get ready to ship out to the National Renewable Energy Laboratory. The group's entry in the Decathlon was called the Solar Homestead.



Above Left: The group sacrificed most of its free time to design the Solar Homestead meticulously. They even taped the floorplan of the house on the floor of the Great Hall in BiHall. Left: The group planning in Axinn... yes, that clock says 5:05 a.m. All their hard work paid off in the end. The group was selected as one of twenty college and university groups to show their finished houses at the National Mall in Washington, D.C. in October 2011 for judging.

Fencing Club

The Fencing Club has made a lot of progress this year. We bought new equipment, taught more than 20 beginners (including those who took our winter-term workshop class), visited and fenced at the club in town, and formed a team of more experienced fencers to compete with other schools. We hope to have a meet with the UVM club this spring. We also instituted a tradition of hosting a tournament, open to all students as well as members of the surrounding community, at the end of each semester. Most importantly, we had fun fencing and we look forward to another great year!

Stuck in the Middle

Stuck in the Middle (SIM) had an action-packed year! We released our third album, clap.stomp., in January. In addition to many events on campus, SIM ventured further into the college community, something which we hope to continue in the future. SIM also made its way to Boston, New York City, and Connecticut for two, very successful tours. Looking back, it was a great year for SIM, and all the while, we managed to keep it fresh, classy, and fun!
